THE UNIVERSITY   OF HONG KONG

Department of Mathematics

Numerical Mathematics and Applied Analysis Group Seminar (NMAA)

How Long is a String - The world of fractals

Mr. Chan Pak Hei
HKU

on Thursday, February 23, 2012 at 2:00pm
in Room 309, Run Run Shaw Building, HKU

Abstract

The presentation aims at introducing fractals to secondary school student, through a characteristic problem in daily life. The world of fractals seem unmanageable for these students, but there are still many that can broaden the horizon the sense of mathematics and even some natural occurrence knowledge of them. Elementary yet fruitful approached is expected.

All are welcome