

Asymptotic Behaviour of a Lambert Series In Maass Case

Soumyarup Banerjee (Harish–Chandra Research Institute, Allahabad, India)

December 8, 2017, 3:30-4:30pm
Run Run Shaw Building, Room 210

Abstract

Hafner and Stopple proved a conjecture of Zagier on the asymptotic expansion of a Lambert series involving Ramanujan's tau function with the main term involving the nontrivial zeros of Riemann zeta function. Recently, Chakraborty et. al. have extended this result to any cusp forms over the full modular group. The aim here is to study the asymptotic behaviour of a similar Lambert series involving the coefficients of Maass cusp forms over the full modular group.