

On the Complex Twisted Moments of Symmetric Power L -Functions

Abstract

Computing the complex power moments of symmetric power L -functions of cusp forms at the edge of the critical strip arise from the study of extreme values of these L -functions at 1. There are a couple of interesting results by various researchers. In this talk, we shall discuss some extensions of the known results in the weight aspect.