online	MATH185305	5	Some students may find this strange, but the fact that this professor had alot of little motions during his teaching was what actually kept me paying attention through most classes. Engineering courses, especially Math is boring. And normal students like me have very limited attention span. To keep me paying attention is	The examples and formulas he writes during class for us to see on the projector. I need that. We all need that. Taking pictures with our iphones & ipads should not be how we learn. Those sheets should be uploaded promptly. And some of his notes are different from what we download on Moodle. It gets confusing. And please bear in mind that not all of us can afford to buy tablet computers and
